The World's Need

So many gods, so many credos,
So many paths that wind and wind,
While just the art of being kind
Is all the sad world needs.

—Wilcox.

Miss Blair Woodrow left this morning for an extended trip, first to Savannah to be the guest of Mrs. Beverly Pendleton, and then to Charleston, S. C., to visit Miss Franklin Harvey. The first of December she expects to be in Jacksonville to take the two weeks course in dancing and physical culture under Mr. Sherman Hammott and Miss Gertrude Hammott. Miss Woodrow will probably teach these dances in Ocala during the holidays. Mr. Hammott and his sister have just taken this course in New York.

Mr. D. E. Busler left yesterday for Little Rock, Ark., where he has accepted a position with one of the leading retail shoe stores as manager. Mrs. Busler and daughter, Miss Carrie Belle, will follow in about three weeks. Mr. Busler has for several years been connected with the shoe department of the H. B. Masters company and the family has made many friends here who will regret their decision to make their home in another city.

The reading club will have its first meeting today with its president, Miss Minnie Gamsby. This year the club will take up the Bay View course of civil government, which includes the following: "Woman's Part in Government," Wm. H. Allen; "Training in Citizenship," Joseph N. Smith, and "America in Ferment," Paul L. Hanworth.

The Junior sewing circle of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Eugene Rivers at her home on Watula street tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The members are making great preparations for their festival which will be held at the armory Nov. 3rd.

The Halloween dance that was to have been given by the Daughters of the Confederacy on the public square on the evening of Oct. 27 has been deferred until the following Friday evening, Nov. 3. It is expected to be a most festive occasion and all the town should attend.

Mrs. H. H. McCreary of Gainesville, president of the U. D. C., and Mrs. D. E. McIver, vice president, left today for Tampa. They went especially to attend the board meeting, but will remain for the reunion. They will be guests of Mrs. Webb.

Mrs. Emelie Suarez, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. R. Dehon, has returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Her friends will be interested to know that in the near future she expects to go to Havana, Cuba to live.

Lenore Ulrich, the popular movie star, won many admirers in Ocala several weeks ago when she appeared here for the first time in "The Heart of Paula." They were just as pleased with her last night in "The Intrigue."

Mrs. E. L. Carney left yesterday for Tampa to attend the U. D. C. convention. She will be the guest of Mrs. A. G. Baker, wife of Brig.-Gen. Baker, at the Tampa Bay hotel. Mrs. Carney will return Saturday.

A small party of young folks motored to the lake this morning to bring Miss Elsie Meade to Ocala. She will be the guest of Misses Dorothy and Marion Long for several days.

Mrs. H. A. McConn and her pretty baby boy, who have been here visiting relatives for some weeks, expect to return to their home in Jacksonville in a day or so.

Miss Victoria Rayson is in the city for a visit to her brother, Mr. Henry Rayson, and family, while her father, Mr. L. M. Rayson, attends the Confederate reunion.

Master Thomas Sexton's little friends will be glad to have him back in school after an absence of several weeks on account of sickness.

Mrs. Max Tobleski, who was operated on at the Marion County Hospital, is very much improved, and has been taken to her home.

The Tuesday afternoon auction club will meet this afternoon with Miss Nellie Gottlieb on Oklawaha avenue.

Mrs. L. M. Brinkley has been in the hospital for some weeks. Her friends are glad to see her out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rheinauer left Saturday for New York, where they will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Martin have returned from a very pleasant vacation at Franklin, N. C.

Miss Irene Gardner of Palatka is spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. M. L. Mershon.

Miss Gamsby, the librarian, requests the Star to announce that the hours at the Carnegie library will hereafter be from 9 to 11 a. m., and 4 to 8 p. m.

Mrs. John Manley of "Manley Manor," was the guest of Mrs. Louis Long yesterday.

The Eastern Star sewing circle will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fanny Anthony.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

"The Intrigue," at the Temple last night, was a very interesting story—a good plot carried out with excellent acting. Lenore Ulrich hasn't often been seen by Ocala people; they hope to increase their acquaintance if her work in "The Intrigue" is a fair sample.

The cartoon, giving another bunch of Col. Heeza Liar's adventures, was most laughable.

Frances Nelson and E. K. Lincoln will be seen in "The Almighty Dollar Tonight," and tomorrow evening that most bright little actress Marguerite Clark will appear in "Gretchen Green."

now down the line of cuts beyond. "Jim! Mart—is he here too?" He tried to speak, but he could not. He wet his lips and tried once more. "Agnes! Agnes!" was all he could say.

"What is it? Mart, Jim? You know something of Mart?" She stopped. That Jim knew something of her brother she now was certain. His manner had told that to her. He could not deny it now if he would. He knew, and he must tell her. "Mart—Mart's dead, Agnes."

"Dead!" "Yes. He was with me, Agnes. He was in my company."

"So—so you saw him before—he was killed?" "Yes."

"And afterward?" "Yes. I—I shot him."

He told her all. He had to tell her, but she did not understand for many minutes. When the nurses had taken her away a doctor gave Jim morphine to make him sleep.

While he remained in that hospital Agnes did not appear again. His recovery, as the surgeon had assured, promised to be complete. Accordingly during the next week he was separated from those certified by the regent's surgeon as "disabled and unable to again bear arms."

Jim was sent from the hospital with the other convalescents to a great stockade surrounded by barbed wire barriers charged with electricity and commanded by machine guns. There, given a blanket, a bunk in a long board shack, a tin plate and cup and spoon and a number to distinguish him, military prisoner 142,034, recently James Ashby, assistant superintendent of the Ashby Brass works, Elgin, Ill., and more lately captain of American volunteers, continued his convalescence.
